ST. DYFRIG'S NEWS

The first phase of the Heritage Project that we undertook as part of the Heritage Lottery grant, is nearing completion. The project team have produced two 'pull up' banners, a memories booklet and an information leaflet. All of these items will be on display at the church stand in Trefest on Saturday, however if you can't make it, the banners will be on display in the Annex after mass on Sunday during tea and coffee. The leaflet is still being 'upgraded' but the draft versions are available. Eventually, all of these items will be used for various exhibitions and events to share the story of the history of St Dyfrig's and the stories of its parishioners.

The second phase of the phase of the project has also started and the team have already spoken to a number of people about their own stories and their links with St Dyfrig's. If you would to be involved either as a volunteer to collect stories, or if you have a family story to tell, please see one of the project team. Liz Mayo, Lesley Hughes, Ann Cleary, Maggie White, Steph McNicholas or Sue Cleary for more information.

We still haven't got a final total for the jumble sale as dribs and drabs still coming in so please let the notice I sent last week still stand.

Next Welcome Friends Afternoon Tea and Chat is on Friday 18th October at 2pm (we had to postpone 4th October)

MISSIO RED BOXES. Just a reminder to Bring in your red box for emptying. Please leave your red box in the Sacristy and I will return it to the Narthex for you to collect. If you have any queries, please do contact me. Many thanks, Allan Reeves

The next Ladies Night will be on Wednesday 16th October in the Hall at 7pm.

Christmas is just around the corner and we are already planning for the Christmas Raffle to raise funds for the continued repairs to the church. If you have any unwanted gifts then please consider donating to the Christmas raffle. A collection box will be placed in the narthex for donations.

Upcoming Events - An autumn bazaar is planned for Saturday 23rd November in the hall. Time to get the craft box and the knitting needles out!!

As in past years, Jay has offered to sell wine in the Annex on Sunday mornings after mass. This will start on Sunday 24th November, more details nearer to the date.

Once again Julie has offered to take your family Christmas photo. This will be in December, a date to be finalised.

The Christmas Raffle will take place on Sunday 22nd December. Raffle tickets will be available soon.

Post-Christmas - it has been proposed to hold a New Year dinner celebration mid-January. This will include a 3 course meal, entertainment and a bar. The provisional date is Friday 17th January. Details will be available soon.

It's never too early to start collecting items for this year's shoeboxes. I will shortly be distributing leaflets but need to inform you of certain items that cannot be included in the boxes this Christmas. The reasons are complicated but are due to customs regulations in the receiving countries. We are no longer allowed to include chocolates, sweets or toothpaste, but these can be substituted by many other gifts. Each year millions of precious children experience the joy of a shoebox. Your generosity is touching hearts and transforming lives as children all over the world receive the shoebox gifts you so lovingly pack. I hope I can count on your generosity again this Christmas.

Many thanks,
Teresa Jones
