Easter Sunday -The Resurrection of the Lord

Cycle A Psalter Week 1

Christ, my hope, has risen: he goes before you into Galilee.

That Christ is truly risen from the dead we know. Victorious King, thy mercy show! “

(from the Easter Sequence)

May I wish you and your families all the joys and blessings of the wonderful season of Easter.

Fr. Allan.

‘He’s gone’, says Joseph, and with Pilate’s leave
Eases the nails and lowers him from the tree,
Wraps him in reverent and tender thoughts
And lays him in the cave called Memory.

That cave is deeply hewn in Joseph’s heart:
All that’s within will always be his own:
In memory’s cave the treasure of his past
Is safe for ever, walled and sealed by stone.

‘He’s safe’, says Joseph, ‘safe in this cool place
And no one now can take my Lord away.
In years to come I’ll still see his dear face
As clearly as I’ve seen it on this day.

‘He’s gone’, cries Joseph at the empty tomb:
But Mary says ‘He’s left a word for you:
He cannot rest content to be your past,
So he has risen to be your future too.’

Please can we remember in our prayers this weekend, the candidates who would have been baptised, received into full communion with the Church at the Easter Vigil. Ana Margarida Lopes Pereira dos Santos, Denise Symon, Gareth Jones, Neo Shanahan and Sarah Leggett. We are praying for you and hoping it will not be long before we can welcome you into the Church.

COVID19: Prayer and Worship at Home- Bishops of England and Wales

Due to the need to stop the spread of COVID-19 and the need for social distancing, we have had to take the difficult decision to close Catholic churches to the public until further notice. Rest assured we will continue to provide news, resources and information to help you keep Christ at the centre of your lives at home. More information on our Coronavirus \(COVID-19\) page.

Live Catholic Mass Online- Visit our dedicated page giving you links to churches broadcasting Mass.

Easter - Many people are asking how we will observe Easter this year in these difficult times. Here's some guidance from Rome in the form of a decree.

Holy Week with Pope Francis - We will embed live Catholic Masses and prayer here but do check the Vatican News YouTube channel for the latest broadcast events.

Cardinal Vincent Nichols is encouraging Catholics to #PrayForPriests through Holy Week – particularly on Maundy Thursday when we recall the Last Supper and the institution of the Holy Eucharist.

"I ask you, please, this Holy Week – this Maundy Thursday – to pray for priests that they will be faithful and generous. And I know they are spending a lot of time in prayer for you.

We now have pages on Virgin Money Giving for donations to be made to both parishes during this time when normal collections cannot be taken. When donating via Virgin Money there is a box available for comment. Parishioners can specify in this section a specific destination for their donation, e.g. Parish Funds, Easter Offering, Mass Intention etc. The links for donations are as follows:

<https://uk.virginmoneygiving.com/StDyfrigsChurchTreforest>

and

<https://uk.virginmoneygiving.com/AllHallowsChurch>

"During the current pandemic we are not able to come together for weekend mass. This, of course means that we are not able to have our usual weekly collections. I hope that those who can afford it will use this means to donate to our parishes of All Hallows and St Dyfrig's, to ensure that our on-going activity can be supported.

I know how difficult things are for some people at present, so please only donate if you are sure you can afford to do so.

Please continue to pray for me and all the people of the parishes and I assure you of my prayers for you.

Guide us O Lord your people in our parishes of St Dyfrig's and All Hallows. Drive far away from us all the snares of the devil. Grant to us a strong lively faith. Increase our faith, dispel our fears and revive our hope. May we work together in your Church for the building up of your kingdom. We ask that the Holy Spirit will guide us as we make our prayer through Christ our Lord. Amen.

St Dyfrig and All Saints - PRAY FOR US.

May God bless you at this time and always.
Fr Allan"

Daily prayer publication goes free during COVID-19

Many Catholics will be familiar with a monthly publication called 'Magnificat'. This monthly publication acts as a spiritual companion offering daily items for prayer including:

- Morning Prayer
- Daily Mass texts and readings
- Meditation for the Day
- Evening Prayer
- Saint of the Day
- Night Prayers

Given the serious nature of the COVID-19 pandemic and the social lockdown in which we find ourselves, the publishers of 'Magnificat' are making the online version of the publication FREE to everyone for the duration of the crisis. The material will provide a valuable resource for staying connected and going into the deep during this period of no public liturgies.

Cycle of Prayer for the Parishes of the Archdiocese

Confessions: First Saturday of every month 10.15 – 11.15 am

Donations to All Hallows Funds

As our church is closed, those who give regular donations during mass can donate at:

<http://uk.virginmoneygiving.com/AllHallowsChurch>

Missals

The current Missal's liturgical years at the back of the book will end in 2020. The readings will all remain the same so there is no need to change. Phillip Hopkins has advised that new pages can be added into existing missals and are available at the piety stall.

HELP FOR FLOOD VICTIMS: The PAC will co-ordinate and liaise with the SVP at St Dyfrig's as to the urgent need to help the victims of the recent floods and storm damage within our communities and keep you informed accordingly as to what is needed at this time.

MISSIO – APF RED BOXES

We have received a thank you letter and poster from Missio for the continued care of our Church family through the support of the Red Box and direct donations. The prayers and gifts continue to sustain missionary sisters and priests as they share God's love with some of the most vulnerable, marginalised people throughout the world.

In the last year, members of the Red Box Family in our parish have raised a fantastic £4071.53 Thank you. Our sisters and brothers around the world continue to need our prayers and financial support. Please continue to support the work of the Red Box. If you don't already have a Red Box at home, or would like information in other ways to give to the Red Box, please do ask me. Teresa Bressington 01443 204830.

Due to the current situation with the Coronavirus, we will refrain from calling in the Red Boxes for emptying until normal Mass is resumed in our parish.

ALL HALLOWS PARISH 25TH ANNIVERSARY

Next year will be the 25th Anniversary of the opening of our Parish Church here at Miskin. We are hoping to make it a special celebratory year and welcome support from parishioners to come together as part of a planning committee in this project. We are proud of our church and parish and think it would be a wonderful opportunity as a parish to share in this celebratory year. Are you interested ???

Our Parish Prayer Wall is in the LADY CHAPEL. Please write the name of the person you wish to pray for on a post-it note and add it to the wall.

Please join us in prayer, as we ask for your prayers for:

St. Dyfrig's News

SVP Support Lines - St. Dyfrig's SVP is in a difficult position at the moment for obvious reasons. We can no longer visit those people we usually see and as but two of our Society are in the 'vulnerable' category of people, there is little else we can do other than telephone and keep in contact with those we know. However, we would like to make ourselves available to other who we may not know. Therefore, below is a list of names and phone numbers. If you or anyone else you know is isolated and lonely and would welcome a chat, we are here on the end of the phone. If we can help in any other way we will, but obviously within the Government guidelines. Our love and prayers to you all. Keep well, keep safe, stay at home.

Pope Francis' Message for Holy Week

Dear friends, good evening!

This evening I have the chance to enter your homes in a different way than usual. If you allow me, I would like to have a conversation with you for a few moments, in this time of difficulty and of suffering. I can imagine you in your families, living an unusual life to avoid contagion. I am thinking of the liveliness of children and young people, who cannot go out, attend school, live their lives. I have in my heart all the families, especially those who have a loved one who is sick or who have unfortunately experienced mourning due to the coronavirus or other causes. These days I often think about people who are alone, and for whom it is more difficult to face these moments. Above all I think of the elderly, who are very dear to me.

I cannot forget those who are sick with coronavirus, people who are in hospital. I am aware of the generosity of those who put themselves at risk for the treatment of this pandemic or to guarantee the essential services to society. So many heroes, every day, at every hour! I also remember how many are in financial straits and are worried about work and the future. A thought also goes out to prison inmates, whose pain is compounded by fear of the epidemic, for themselves and their loved ones; I think of the homeless, who do not have a home to protect them.

It is a difficult time for everyone. For many, very difficult. The Pope knows this and, with these words, he wants to tell everyone of his closeness and affection. Let us try, if we can, to make the best use of this time: let us be generous; let us help those in need in our neighbourhood; let us look out for the loneliest people, perhaps by telephone or social networks; let us pray to the Lord for those who are in difficulty in Italy and in the world. Even if we are isolated, thought and spirit can go far with the creativity of love. This is what we need today: the creativity of love. This is what is needed today: the creativity of love.

We will celebrate Holy Week in a truly unusual way, which manifests and sums up the message of the Gospel, that of God's boundless love. And in the silence of our cities, the Easter Gospel will resound. The Apostle Paul says: "And He died for all, that those who live should no longer live for themselves, but for Him Who died for them and was raised again" (2 Cor 5:15). In the risen Jesus, life conquered death. This Paschal faith nourishes our hope. I would like to share it with you this evening. It is the hope of a better time, in which we can be better, finally freed from evil and from this pandemic. It is a hope: hope does not disappoint; it is not an illusion, it is a hope.

Beside each other, in love and patience, we can prepare a better time in these days. Thank you for allowing me into your homes. Make a gesture of tenderness towards those who suffer, towards children, and towards the elderly. Tell them that the Pope is close and pray, that the Lord will soon deliver us all from evil. And you, pray for me.
