FIRST HOLY COMMUNION

Please continue to pray for our First Holy Communion Children who should have been receiving the Sacrament this weekend.

CHRISTIAN MEDITATION FOR CHILDREN - The Catholic Children's Society {Westminster} and the World Community for Christian Meditation are producing videos on Christian Meditation for primary aged children and secondary aged pupils on weekdays. In these difficult times of Covid 19, it is with a mind to look after the spiritual wellbeing of children and young people that these have been produced. It is hoped that they will be used by schools, and by children in First Communion and Confirmation groups. To view the videos and see more information please visit https://www.youtube.com/channel/UC6Cb5LrAIU7\_MPTRDMUBcvQ.

The weekly Newsletter and Father Allan's Sermon are also available. Please let your friends, who do not receive a Newsletter, know.

Prayers are asked for Fr Chris Delaney OSB who is in Nazareth House and has Covid-19 and for Ken Bond from All Hallows who is sick.

We pray also for the following who died recently: Michael Richmond, David John, Anne Hobbs and Eddie Doyle, the father of Fr Michael Doyle. Please remember all of them and their families at this time.

Meditate on the Scriptures

One piece of advice from St Jerome is to meditate on Scripture. Here is a list of key Bible passages that can help deepen our relationship with God as we read them at home.

The resource this week is called Our Top Tens. Featured are Top Ten Spiritually Uplifting Films, Top Ten Parables, Top Ten

Addressing the faithful after the recitation of the Regina Caeli prayer on Sunday, Pope Francis reminded them that we are entering the “Laudato Si’” Week that unfolds until Sunday 24 May and that marks the 5th anniversary of the publication of the Encyclical.

He said that “in this time marked by the pandemic we are more aware of the importance of caring for our common home,” and he invited everyone to think about and undertake “a shared commitment to help build and strengthen constructive attitudes aimed at caring for Creation.”

Laudato Si’ Week honours the fifth anniversary of Pope Francis’ Encyclical on care for our common home. The theme of the week is “everything is connected.”

This week, from 16 to 24 May, launches a year-long journey of transformation promoted by the Dicastery for Promoting Integral Human Development, “as we grow through the crisis of the current moment by praying, reflecting, and preparing together for a better world to come tomorrow.”

Following Pope Francis’ invitation to join Laudato Si’ Week, Christians everywhere are invited to reflect and take for action in the spirit of the Encyclical.

St. Dyfrig's News

SVP Support Lines - St. Dyfrig's SVP is in a difficult position at the moment for obvious reasons. We can no longer visit those people we usually see and as but two of our Society are in the 'vulnerable' category of people, there is little else we can do other than telephone and keep in contact with those we know. However, we would like to make ourselves available to other who we may not know. Therefore, below is a list of names and phone numbers. If you or anyone else you know is isolated and lonely and would welcome a chat, we are here on the end of the phone. If we can help in any other way we will, but obviously within the Government guidelines. Our love and prayers to you all. Keep well, keep safe, stay at home.
