Building Work in Church – this week the internal scaffolding was taken down. It is now possible to see the new paintwork. I said last week that the colour was chosen by the architect in charge. Electricians have been at the Church putting new lighting in the Church entrance/narthex and in the sanctuary. We are now waiting for some more paint to arrive for the narthex before the great “clean up” can begin!

We have received various pieces of information with regards to the opening of Church after lockdown. We

First Reading Exodus 34:4-6, 8-9; Second Reading 1 Corinthians 13:11-13

Gospel John 3:16-18

Responsorial Psalm: To you glory and praise for evermore.

Gospel Acclamation: Alleluia, alleluia! Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit. Alleluia!

will need to buy PPE. It looks as if the Church will be ready as the lockdown is eased. Hopefully this will mean that we will not need the parish hall for Mass and we will be able to move straight into the Church building.

I hope that all of you and your families are safe and well. Please be assured of my prayers for you all. As always my prayers are for the dead and those who are suffering because of Coronavirus. Perhaps this week we could also pray for those who have died in the US and that the turmoil there may soon be resolved.

Fr Allan

We are invited to contemplate, so to speak, the Heart of God, his deepest reality which is his being One in the Trinity, a supreme and profound communion of love and life. The whole of Sacred Scripture speaks to us of him. Indeed, it is he who speaks to us of himself in the Scriptures and reveals himself as Creator of the universe and Lord of history.'

(Pope Emeritus Benedict XVI Sunday Missal on the feast of The Most Holy Trinity)

Bible Journalling - St. Jerome, St. Paula and St. Eustochium painstakingly wrote out the Scriptures, translating them from the original languages into Latin. Whilst most of us won't be working on a new translation of the Bible, you may find Bible journalling a helpful alternative to engage deeply with Scripture. Here's an article by the Bible Society on how to start Bible journalling.

St. Dyfrig's News

St Dyfrig's Heritage Project. Because of the present situation, the project group have suspended the face to face interviews with parishioners but we hope to continue these as soon as restrictions are lifted and it is safe to do so. However, if you have any stories about your family history and how it connects to St Dyfrig's, we would still love to hear from you. We can 'interview' you online via email if you are happy to do this. We are also keen to hear from anyone who has links or stories connected to the original workhouse on the Graig. Please email Sue Cleary with your details/stories and she will get in touch with you. scleary55@outlook.com Thank you

SVP Support Lines - St. Dyfrig's SVP is in a difficult position at the moment for obvious reasons. We can no longer visit those people we usually see and as but two of our Society are in the 'vulnerable' category of people, there is little else we can do other than telephone and keep in contact with those we know. However, we would like to make ourselves available to other who we may not know. Therefore, below is a list of names and phone numbers. If you or anyone else you know is isolated and lonely and would welcome a chat, we are here on the end of the phone. If we can help in any other way we will, but obviously within the Government guidelines. Our love and prayers to you all. Keep well, keep safe, stay at home.

ST. DYFRIG'S PRAYER WALL – May we also keep in our prayers those who find the current lockdown difficult and are anxious. May they find comfort in the presence of the Lord Jesus

Prayer for Our Community:

Knowing you are hearing us better than we are speaking, we offer these prayers in all the holy names of God, amen. (Fr Richard Rohr)
