Live Streamed Mass in St Dyfrig's

Fr Allan continues to say Mass privately in St Dyfrig's every day at 10am, except Wednesday when it will be at 9.15am. You can now join him via the new St Dyfrig's webcam.

The webcam is easy to find: simply head to the St Dyfrig's website (<http://www.pontypriddrcdeanery.org.uk/churches/treforest.html>) and click on the picture labeled "St Dyfrig's Catholic Church Webcam Link"

A new window will open. Press play button to watch the service live.

Please pray for Kath Bond who died last week. Kath was a well-known parishioner at All Hallows. Her husband Ken died earlier on this summer.

Your prayers are also asked for Christopher Ryan who died last Sunday. Chris was the son of Joan and brother to Laurence and Fiona. Please keep both Kath and Chris in your prayers.

'Listen, listen to me and you will have good things to eat and rich food to enjoy. Pay attention, come to me; listen, and your soul will live. With you I will make an everlasting covenant out of the favours promised to David.'

(First Reading Eighteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time, Isaiah 55:3)

CAFOD – As the Coronavirus pandemic spreads, millions of vulnerable lives are at stake. We have already seen how badly the virus impacts people living in countries with limited healthcare systems, and where people have no access to clean water or reliable food. We are particularly concerned about people living in refugee camps and in countries suffering conflict, where people are already at the brink of survival. Joining forces with the Disasters Emergency Committee, we are scaling up our response because we believe that no one should be beyond reach of the humanitarian aid they need to survive in the coming weeks and months. Your donations are urgently needed. Donations can be sent: Freepost Plus RSSA- CLBY-TAAE, CAFOD, Romero House, 55 Westminster Bridge Road, London. SE1 7JB. As Pope Francis reminds us: "this is not a time for indifference, because the whole world is suffering and needs to be united in facing the pandemic."

First Reading Isaiah 55:1-3; Second Reading Romans 8:35. 37-39

Gospel Matthew 14:13-21

Gospel Acclamation: Alleluia, alleluia! Blessings on the King who comes, in the name of the Lord!

Peace in heaven and glory in the highest heavens! Alleluia!

SVP Support Lines - St. Dyfrig's SVP is in a difficult position at the moment for obvious reasons. We can no longer visit those people we usually see and as but two of our Society are in the 'vulnerable' category of people, there is little else we can do other than telephone and keep in contact with those we know. However, we would like to make ourselves available to other who we may not know. Therefore, below is a list of names and phone numbers. If you or anyone else you know is isolated and lonely and would welcome a chat, we are here on the end of the phone. If we can help in any other way we will, but obviously within the Government guidelines. Our love and prayers to you all. Keep well, keep safe, stay at home.

Why do I need to book to attend Mass?

Because of the restrictions caused by the Covid-19 pandemic, we are gradually opening our churches; as a result the number of people they can hold is far lower than usual, due to requirements of social distancing. As spaces are limited we ask you to think of the welfare of our brothers and sisters. Both of our parishes are limited to 24 stations. To maximise the number of people who can attend Mass we ask that you do not register for Mass every week so that everyone can have the opportunity to attend Mass. The Sunday obligation remains dispensed with so there's no need to panic if you cannot get to a Sunday Mass. In order to maintain safe social distancing in our church and to provide accurate records for the purposes of track and trace we ask you to book places at Mass. If you have not booked your place and have not received confirmation from Kate Duffin or Teresa Bressington, please do not attend, you will not be allowed to enter the church. All Hallows will be open for Mass at 9.15 a.m. on Sundays St. Dyfrig's will be open for Mass on Sundays at 11 a.m. A list of those eligible to attend Mass on a particular Sunday will be forwarded to Fr Allan for the stewards to check on entry.

If you wish to attend Mass:

- Booking will be by telephone on a first come, first served basis. Kate Duffin is the contact for St. Dyfrig's on 07709618735 and Teresa Bressington for All Hallows on 07599155418. Phone calls and texts can be made between 11 am and 3 pm, on the Wednesday prior to the Sunday Mass. (This will change to Friday for this week only). Your contact information will be kept for 28 days and then deleted
- By registering to attend Mass, you confirm the following conditions are met:

You currently show no symptoms of Coronavirus

Should you develop symptoms prior to the service, you will not attend.

You agree to use hand-sanitizer as a condition of entry, and follow the instructions of the stewards

You must wear a face mask at all times removing it only to place the Sacred Host in your mouth. It is appreciated that this may be uncomfortable for some, but we have to consider the safety of everyone

- It should be noted that there will be no toilet facilities available
- You should arrive between 15 and 5 minutes before the start time of Mass
- Please allow a steward to show you to your seat
- Single registration enables you to book as an individual or as two members of the same household. Individuals will be sat socially distanced from others, but members of the same household will be sat together and social distancing from others
- Family registration reserves two stations. With social distancing away from the aisles, two stations can accommodate a family of 6. Everyone must sit together and be from the same household.

What To Expect During Mass

- Please refrain from talking to your friends who are not part of your household
- No congregational singing at Mass and any responses should be made in a low tone, as singing and loud voices have been shown to spread the virus further
- There will be no sign of peace
- The words "The Body of Christ" and "The Blood of Christ", and the reply "Amen" will only be said by the congregation once after the priest's communion. They will not be repeated for each person receiving Holy Communion
- Holy Communion will be distributed after the final dismissal of the Mass
- People receiving Holy Communion are expected to approach with their arms outstretched so as to maintain a reasonable distance from the priest

- You may only receive the Sacred Host in your hand and not on your tongue
- Communicants must avoid skin contact with the priest
- You must then step to one side, and place the Sacred Host in your mouth then follow directions to leave the church directly, you will not be allowed to return to your seat, so please ensure you have all of your belongings with you

After Mass

- There will be no collection at Mass. You are encouraged to make your donation to the Church via standing order on online. If you wish to donate cash, please do so in one of baskets at the back of church
- Use only designated exits
- Please take home a newsletter
- Please do not gather in the church narthex or on church property for conversations

Please accept our apologies for any inconvenience or distress these regulations may cause. They are a requirement to enable public worship to take place, but it is to ensure everyone's safety, and hopefully they will reassure you and help you on your return back to Mass.
