Twenty Fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Cycle B Psalter Week 4

News for All

FIRST HOLY COMMUNION

Fr Allan and the First Holy Communion Catechists will be meeting on Thursday (9th September) to plan the next programme for First Holy Communion. At the moment it looks as if there will be some changes as to the presentation of the programme. Obviously we will let you know how the programme will develop as soon as it is planned.

THE USE OF THE PARISH HALL

Neil Spillar, the Health and Safety Officer for our parishes, has now been told that certain events can take place in the Parish Hall. There will still have to be certain regulations to follow. However, it is hoped that a Ladies Fashion Evening will take place at some time in October. Once again, as soon as we know more we will let you know.

Next Sunday is Home Mission Sunday - Each year we celebrate Home Mission Sunday – a day when the Bishops invite parishes to pray for the mission of the Church in England and Wales and there is a second collection to support the Bishops' work of evangelisation.

Donations

There is a second collection to support the Bishops' work in the area of evangelisation. The money collected enables us to support parish evangelisation.

SECOND RUN OF THE ARCHDIOCESAN EVANGELISATION PROGRAMME

The Diocesan Evangelisation Commission is pleased to announce a second run of its Archdiocesan Evangelisation Programme. The first run was very successful. Participants were enthusiastic about it and several of them have written glowing comments about it.

Spread the Gospel: Developing a Missionary Parish.

The Programme has been approved by His Grace, Archbishop George Stack. It is a seven-week programme, running for one and half hours via Zoom on one evening a week. The dates will be Tuesday, September 28th, October 5th, 12th, 19th and 26th and November 2nd and 9th. It will be delivered once again by members of the Evangelisation Commission.

The Programme is open to all parishioners and clergy across the Archdiocese.

The Programme will remind participants of the Great Commission and the basic Gospel message. It will cover a rudimentary history of the early church and will consider important messages from recent papal papers, how to give witness testimonies, evangelise non-church going Catholics with practical approaches and tools for building a parish team to evangelise.

The Genesis Mission will be an important follow-on activity offered to participants, providing the necessary skills for successful encounters.

For more information and to register for the Programme, please email Madeleine Walters at madeleine.walters@rcadc.org

STEWARDS AT MASS:

Praise the Lord that we are able to have mass celebrated in our churches and it is wonderful to see our parishioners returning to mass after the COVID restrictions are easing. We still have to fulfil certain aspects of government regulations in wearing masks and sanitising after each mass, and of course we have to take names and contact details for contact and trace purposes.

Now we are having extra masses through the week, the regulations still apply with the taking of names on arrival, wearing masks and sanitising after each service, we would be grateful for any help you can give to the Team at weekday and weekend masses.

Singing has resumed at weekend masses, could you hand out the hymn books, or the singing sheets on arrival, help with the sanitising or taking names and phone numbers, just little things to help in the preparations to enable us to continue having masses during these times and meet the relevant government guidelines that we have to follow to allow us to have congregational masses.

We have battled the storm, and there is light at the end of the tunnel, we have hope for the future, and as a family of God we have come through this together, It a blessing to see faces of those we have missed these long arduous months and we welcome the return to Mass in our own church. If you can help in any way to build upon what we have achieved and develop further our church ministries by being part of them, and helping where you can, it will be greatly appreciated.

Please let us know where you can offer your help, we look forward to hearing from you.

CHURCH LITURGIES –

Dermot Lyons has agreed to continue with co-ordinating the Liturgy Lists and will be preparing them accordingly. If anyone who is new to the parish or existing members who would like to participate in the liturgies at Holy Mass, please contact Dermot by email on dermotl@btinternet.com

There will still be challenges ahead, but as a parish community we will go forward together and hope and pray that our church will continue to grow in love, spirituality, evangelisation and outreach.

OFFERTORY ENVELOPES

The new boxes of envelopes are available in the church foyer.

On behalf of the Parish, I would like to thank all those of you who Gift Aid your contributions and use envelopes or standing orders. I would also thank all of those who signed up to the scheme recently. These provide a method for regular giving in addition to allowing us to recover the tax paid on their contributions. New and existing parishioners who do not currently use offertory envelopes are encouraged to request a set by contacting Tony Yule (029 20890621).

ST. DYFRIG'S PRAYER WALL

Prayer for Our Community:

Loving God, you fill all things with a fullness and hope that we can never comprehend. Thank you for leading us into a time where more of reality is being unveiled for us all to see. We pray that you will take away our natural temptation for cynicism, denial, fear and despair. Help us have the courage to awaken to greater truth, greater humility, and greater care for one another. May we place our hope in what matters and what lasts, trusting in your eternal presence and love. Listen to our hearts' longings for the healing of our suffering world. Please add your own intentions knowing, good God, you are hearing us better than we are speaking, we offer these prayers in all the holy names of God. Amen. (Fr Richard Rohr)

Our Parish Prayer Wall is in the narthex. Please write your intention on a post-it note and add it to the wall. Please can you write the name clearly.
