Pastor Gareth writes: NEW BEGINNINGS

As we bid farewell to the festive season, I would like to put my thanks in writing, first of all to everyone who helped with the practicalities of our Christmas events (from building cribs to serving mince pies) and to all the benefactors who have blessed our parishes, our seasonal charities, and me personally during these weeks of celebration. A special shout-out goes to the Tea Dance Group at All Hallows, who donated the proceeds of their most recent event to the Presbytery Renovation fund.

On Monday evening, despite the threat of snow, we had an excellent turnout for our guest speaker, Allegra Mutanda. Allegra enthused all present with dreams of what our parishes could become, and then spent the following day with the Pastorate Leadership team, sharing from the experience of her four-church parish and helping us take the first steps to turn some of those dreams into reality.

We have made a strong start to the "Year of Prayer" with our "5 a day" prayer campaign. If you haven't yet taken a flier with the suggested topics for 5 minutes of prayer each day, there will be spares available for the next few weeks. We will also make a map available in each church so you can show your pledge to pray by placing a pin in the map.

Given the limited number of applications received for older pupils to make First Holy Communion in 2024, we are now able to open this year's preparation in All Hallows and St Dyfrig's to all Year 3 Pupils. Application forms ONLY for Year 3 pupils (or their older siblings in primary school) will be available this weekend and next weekend after Sunday Mass. Please note that siblings already in Secondary School are too old to participate in these First Communion groups and should instead prepare through our Young Disciples group which resumes on Monday evening.

The week spanning 18 – 25 January is the annual Week of Prayer for Christian Unity. We are holding prayer services in All Hallows and St Dyfrig's, and supporting a Rhondda service in St Barnabas, Penygraig, CF40 1LF. That week's on-line prayer service on Monday afternoon (22 Jan) will also be a Christian Unity service. If you have friends who are Christians who worship in other churches, do invite them to come!

Finally, if you haven't looked at our amdg.page blog recently, you're missing out on news of multiple good things – try it!

Reviewing our Worship

What's working well with the way we worship on Sunday? What needs improving? Are there prayer things we'd like to do on weekdays which aren't currently happening? Each parish will have an Open Review meeting to look at these topics. For All Hallows it follows Mass this Sunday (14th January) – we'll have a cuppa in the hall and then start the meeting there. At St Dyfrig's it will be after Mass Sunday 21st, but given Mass doesn't finish until 12.30 we will have a bring-and-share meal before starting the meeting. The Rhondda Churches will have similar meetings when the weather is less wintry.

St Dyfrig's Newsletter

St Dyfrig's: Thank you to everyone who has donated the foodbank, the Christmas parcels are starting to go out to families in Pontypridd and Treforest. We are still giving out the regular food parcels and are running short of: Packets of biscuits, jars of curry sauce, jars of jam or peanut butter, tins of meat. Thank you again for your continued support.

Also, volunteers on the Saturday will also be welcome.

A big Thank You from St Dyfrig's Hall

A big thank you to all the volunteers in St Dyfrig's Hall who help with the regular weekly cleaning, setting up for events (sometimes at very short notice!), putting tables and chairs away after events, making tea and coffee on a Sunday (and keeping the supplies topped up!), helping with small DIY projects and generally making sure the hall can function on a regular basis. There is also a small group who are looking at different grants for repairs and refurbishment of the hall. If you would like to help with any of these tasks, please let the office know and we will be in touch.
